

Let us Entertain You May to July 2006

Huntingdon Commemoration Hall

Box Office number 01480 455167 / 459899

Tickets from The Card Gallery, Huntingdon, High Street.

May 17th – 7.30pm

Theatre Royal, Bury St Edmunds

Intimate Exchanges

by Alan Ayckbourn

Tickets £6.50 Concessions £6

Meet Celia and Toby Teasdale – a middle-class, suburban couple barely holding their rocky marriage together. When local odd-job man Lionel Hepplewick arrives at their home to lay some crazy-paving. Celia's life is turned upside down. A fast moving piece brim full of humour and Ayckbourn's trademark shrewd observation of the human condition. Intimate Exchanges is one of his most popular works.

May 26th – 8.00pm

Hank Wangford & Reg Meuross

No Hall Too Small

Tickets £6.50 Concessions £6

Hank & Reg will swap songs and stories; shake hands, meet'n'greet and share with you their love of the dark heart of country. Featuring toe-tapping and tear-jerking classics as well as stories and poetry from the highway of life. The show contains plenty of humour with a firm belief that it is possible to cry and dance at the same time.

June 9th – 7.30pm

Swing "n" Sinatra with Five Star Swing

Tickets £8.50

Concessions £7.50

Be entertained with hits from the Rat Pack, Glenn Miller and Ella Fitzgerald plus the foot-stomping best of Jazz & Blues – Jools Holland style.

June 16th – 7.30p.m.

Hunts Roberts Theatre

Fanny Cradock: The LIFE and LOVES of a KITCHEN DEVIL

By Julia Darling

Tickets £6.50 Concessions £6

Fanny Cradock, the first celebrity TV cook, was glamorous. She invented the Prawn Cocktail. Her public persona lingers in the collective memory, ferocious, frightful, and fearsome. In private she proved resilient, resourceful and romantic. Told as though Fanny is performing a cookery demonstration and getting side tracked into telling her story.

Be dazzled by the array of larger than life characters – from rude old men to Michael Parkinson. Sandra Hunt's one-woman tour de force, she has recently appeared in Mersey Beat, Cold Feet and Coronation Street.

July 1st – 7.30pm

Brampton Choral Society

Music for a summer evening from Madrigals to Musicals

Tickets £6 Concessions £5

A miscellany of songs from the musicals, madrigals and easy summer evening listening – performed by a popular local group.

July 10th to 14th

Take one picture

The aim of this exhibition is for children to create pieces of artwork inspired by famous works of art from Henry Moore, William Dyce and Ford Maddox Brown.

Let us Entertain You

Sept 2006 to Jan 2007

Huntingdon Commemoration Hall

Box Office number 01480 455167 / 459899

Tickets from The Card Gallery, Huntingdon, High Street.

September 28th/29th

Shakespeare 4 Kidz Workshop

Workshop for schools.

October 11th/14th

St Neots Music Hall Society

An evening of Music hall with songs and sketches, and a Master of Ceremonies. Supper included. Licensed Bar.

October 20th – 7.30pm

The New Rope String Band

Brilliant musicianship counts for very little if you're playing with total wallies. The Old Rope String Band (what is left of them – Pete Challoner & Tim Dalling) have joined forces with two amazing musicians (Jock Tyldesley and Vera van Heeringen) and as a four piece they are taking off from where the Old Ropes sadly stopped. They play a big assortment of things and all sorts of hoedown pan celtic old timey up beat down home music. All this is combined with bizarre physical nonsense and clowning about. And singing. And dancing.

The sheer visualosity and laughableness of the New Rope String Band, plus the amount of interesting things will bring pleasure to absolutely almost everyone. Boundless energy, exuberant spectacles and beautiful music executed with kindness. What could possibly go wrong?

October 24th half term 3.00pm

The Famous Norwich Puppet Theatre

The Emperor's New Clothes

For five year olds and upwards.

November 9th to 11th

Huntingdon Drama Club

Move Over Mrs Markham

By Ray Cooney and John Chapman
Joanna and Phillip Markham are due to go out for the evening. Their au pair, the interior designer, Philip's business partner Henry, and Henry's wife all see the empty flat as an ideal place for a secret assignation. But when the pairs of hopeful lovers converge on the flat, what follows is a farce of deception, mistaken identity...and frustration.

December 8th/9th

Huntingdon Youth Theatre

"Peter Pan"

January 1st to 9th 2007

Panto 89

Treasure Island