Wisbech, the capital of Fenland, is a market town of great character and historical importance. It is situated approximately 25 miles to the north-east of Peterborough.

Tourist attractions
Church of St Peter and St Paul

Elgood's is a traditional family-run brewery. If you have ever wondered what traditional English beer is like, you are invited to sample it at the brewery.

The house celebrates the life of an anti-slavery woman. Born in Wisbech in 1838, Octavia Hill dedicated her life to helping London's poorest people.

The house was originally a 17th-century merchant's house. It is now a museum and visitor centre.

Cycling

Wisbech is a great place to cycle! The town is full of history and character, and there are plenty of cycle routes to explore.

Why Cycle?

- To get exercise and improve your health.

- To see the sights at your own pace.

- To reduce your carbon footprint.

- To save money on petrol costs.

Cycling Tips

- Wear a helmet and other protective gear.

- Check your bike before setting off.

- Respect the rights of other road users.

Cycling Dos and Don'ts

Do:

- Wear a helmet and other protective gear.

- Check your bike before setting off.

- Respect the rights of other road users.

Don't:

- Ride without a helmet.

- Ignore traffic signs.

- Ride while using a mobile phone.

Cycling map

Wisbech

Directors sign showing National Cycle Route.

Hardesty's cycling

... unless there is an exception shown on the map (for example, on parts of Corporation Road),...

... you can ignore the No Entry sign if there is a gap alongside with this route for cyclists (for example to go north against the traffic flow along part of Orange Grove).

No cycling

Typically used on a footpath away from a road. You cannot ride your bike.

No motor vehicles

You may be able to pass these signs where motorists cannot.

Shared route for cyclists and pedestrians together

The only times cyclists are allowed to ride or be present alongside a road is when you see this sign (for example, on parts of Corporation Road).

... or this one indicating a segregated route, where you must keep to the side designated for cyclists (for example on the path through Wisbech Park).

Cycling

Wisbech

... unless there is an exception shown on the map (for example, on parts of Corporation Road),...

... you can ignore the No Entry sign if there is a gap alongside with this route for cyclists (for example to go north against the traffic flow along part of Orange Grove).

No cycling

Typically used on a footpath away from a road. You cannot ride your bike.

No motor vehicles

You may be able to pass these signs where motorists cannot.

Shared route for cyclists and pedestrians together

The only times cyclists are allowed to ride or be present alongside a road is when you see this sign (for example, on parts of Corporation Road).

... or this one indicating a segregated route, where you must keep to the side designated for cyclists (for example on the path through Wisbech Park).