Cambridgeshire Libraries provides a wide collection of health books that can be searched and requested online (https://cambridgeshire.spydus.co.uk/). The service also promotes health information and initiatives by:

- Offering the Books on Prescription (BOP) scheme
- Providing health information resources
- Supporting local health groups and organisations by publicising health related events and projects